America's Most Convenient Gateway

Volume 1 Issue 2 February 2004

Nonstop Service to Rome Returns in Spring 04

Delta Air Lines and Alitalia will launch year-round service from CVG to Rome beginning May 1, 2004

The daily nonstop flight to Leonardo Da Vinci International Airport is part of the alliance between Delta and Alitalia and will operate as a code-share between the two carriers. The Rome flight offers convenient new access to Alitalia's European hub. The new flight to Rome (Flight # 32) will be on a Boeing 767-300ER that will depart Cincinnati at 7:05 p.m. daily. The return flight (# 33) will arrive in Cincinnati at 2:50 p.m.

Rome in 48 Hours:

Is that at all possible? The first itinerary we suggest starts from St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City, then goes to Castel S. Angelo.. to continue this itinerary, please visit www.romaturismo.it

Discover Italy: After reviewing many destination websites, we believe that the Tourism Italy website is one of the most comprehensive and easy to navigate sites available. A wealth of information is featured including tour operators who specialize in travel to Italy, information on Museums of the Month, What's New in Italy, Italian cooking and Living Italian recipes.

Even if you or your customers are not immediately planning a visit to Italy, a visit to the website is a must. www.italiantourism.com
