United Airlines Offers New Nonstop Service to Denver Beginning June 8

Cincinnati customers will have a new choice for nonstop service to Denver in June, when United initiates daily round-trip service between its Denver hub and CVG. The new service will feature United Express regional jet service explus, which offers the most premium seats of any regional jet carrier, larger overhead bins and extra legroom throughout the aircraft.

The United service complements Delta's 4 daily departures to Denver, one of which is a direct connection for Delta customers on nonstop flights from Europe.

United also begins serving its hub at Washington-Dulles with daily round-trip service in June. Delta offers 5 daily departures to Dulles and 6 to Washington-National, bringing to 12 the total number of nonstop flights available from CVG to Washington, D.C. each day.
