CVG: Your Gateway to West Virginia River Rafting

Travelers through the CVG Gateway looking for adventure have convenient access to whitewater rafting in West Virginia's river region. Delta offers 4 daily departures to Charleston, West Virginia, one of which is a direct connection for travelers on Delta's European flights.

Each September and October, the Summersville Dam opens its gates to unleash the Gauley River, which offers one of the few Class V rapids east of the Rockies. Rafters from around the world travel to "The Grand Canyon of the East" to experience the famous rapids, which are full of excitement, huge waves and deep canyons.
