Service to Ottawa, Canada

CVG passengers flying Delta Air Lines will soon have nonstop access to Canada's capital region when the airline begins flights from Cincinnati to Ottawa in September.

Ottawa, Ontario, Canada is known as "Silicon Valley North" due to the many high-tech companies that reside in the area, including 3M, Adobe, Cisco Systems, Hewlett-Packard and Alcatel.

Every February, Canada's capital region is host to Winterlude, North America's largest winter festival. For three weekends in February, hundreds of thousands of visitors flock to Ottawa to see spectacular ice carvings, amazing playgrounds made of snow and the world's largest skating rink. Winterlude kicks off on Feb. 2 and runs through February 18, 2007. Learn more about Ottawa.

Tall Stacks Returns to Cincinnati USA

The Cincinnati riverfront will once again be home to a world-class event in October, when the Tall Stacks Festival returns to the Ohio River. The five-day celebration begins October 4 and features 16 historic riverboats from all over the country, multiple music stages and riverboat-era educational activities. Over 900,000 people attended the five-day festival in 2003.
